

TIFFIN TRIBUNE.

LOCKE & BROTHER,
PROPRIETORS.

THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 10, 1879.

Republican State Convention.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 29, 1879.

STATE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION AND EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETING.

By direction of the State Central Committee, the next Republican State Convention will be held in the City of Cincinnati, Ohio, on

WEDNESDAY, MAY 29, 1879.

The Convention will assemble at 10 o'clock for

Governor,
Lieutenant Governor,
Supreme Judge,
Attorney General,
Auditor of State,
Treasurer of State,
Member of the Board of Public Works.

We recommend that efforts be made to secure a large attendance at the meeting to support delegates, so that the people shall be fairly represented in the State Convention, and that as far as possible the County Central Committee be organized at the same time that delegates to the State Convention are chosen, if they are not here organized before.

THE BASIS OF REPRESENTATION IN the Convention will be one delegate to every FIVE HUNDRED VOTES cast for Miller, Harner for Secretary of State in 1878, and one additional delegate for every five hundred additional city votes and upwards to each County.

The following table shows the vote cast for Miller and Harner for Secretary of State in 1878, and the number of delegates to which each County will be entitled, viz:

GENERAL MATTERS.

The Emperor of Austria has thick golden hair, reaching to his feet.

John G. Whittier is unable to go to the State Convention.

Schuyler Colfax is said to have demanded $100,000 for the use of his name.

Whittier is about the only citizen who has been expelled from the Democratic ranks.

The best of the election. This is more than ever before.

WHITEHEAD AND THE RE- LIVELY MISSION.

Whitehead, April 10th.—The fact that the German Mission was offered to Whitehead, Editor of the New York Tribune, last December, seems to have been one of the best kept secrets which the present Administration has had. It is now made known by the publication of the following correspondence, which has heretofore been treated as confidential.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 24, 1878.

My Dear Mr. Evans: I must be very frank with you. It was my policy, as far as it was in my power, to make the choice of Ministers to represent our country abroad of great importance to the public position and public service of our country.

It is in accordance with this policy that I have recommended to the President that you should be appointed to the German Mission, made vacant by the death of Mr. Taylor. I give you my personal assurance that I have done so with great pleasure to me, and with the express hope that you may find it in accordance with your inclination, and be not inconsistent with other obligations, to undertake the public service which the President asks of me.

Very truly,
WILLIAM M. EVANS.
